$1.00 PER YEAR

HOWARD AND MORFITT BOWDEN

On the morning of October 1st, our Business will be on a Strictly Cash Basis

We have not taken this step without a great deal of consideration, we have gone into the matter very thoroughly, have talked it over with customers and the conclusion that we have come to, is, that it will be better for them as well as ourselves. By selling for cash, we will be in a position to pay cash for our goods and to take advantage of all cash discounts, which will mean that we will pay less for our goods. Our customers will reap the benefit.

In June we commenced giving coupons with cash purchases and our sales increased wonderfully. We are going to continue to give these coupons, but instead of having two days a month to redeem them we will redeem them every Wednesday.

In addition to taking the coupons as cash we will on Coupon days give an extra 10 per cent. discount on all lines except Groceries. We believe that the new order of things is a move in the right direction and we ask you to give us your support. We have served you well in the past and will try and serve you better in the future.

The excellent weather which has been prevalent for some time now has placed everyone in their highest spirits and indications point to a bumper crop. Nearly all grains have been cut with the exception of that which is to be used for green feed. We received our heaviest frost on Monday morning, but what grain there is standing was well out of the milk, this being the case there is no likelihood of damage from frosts.

Howard and Morfitt are redeeming coupons every Wednesday instead of every second and fourth Wednesday.

Don't Nag

Nagging becomes a habit, and the woman who wants to make her home happy will avoid it like the plague. It never does the slightest good, because if a man is nagged at his faults only increase. He gets tired of being perpetually reminded of them and of having his shortcomings dinned into his ears.

Women generally nag because they are tired—fagged out and nervy, but this is no real excuse for it.

Try being sweet, and it will have a much better effect.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Usually Due to Overwork and Worry—A Tonic is Needed

Overwork and worry give rise to nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, lack of ambition and lack of interest in your work, weak back, indigestion and sometimes a complete breakdown of the nervous system. On every hand you find victims of this kind and often they do not know what to do for themselves. If these are your symptoms you need a tonic, and the only way to tone up the nerves is through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a direct nerve tonic because they enrich and build up the blood, and it is through the blood that the nerves are fed. Under their tonic influence nervousness, with all its attendant evils, disappear, and the worried sufferer again enjoys health and strength. Proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in nervous troubles is given by Mrs. Lara Scheving, Lundar, Man., who says:—"I was attacked with nervous trouble which almost drove me to distraction. It would be almost impossible for words to describe my condition. The least thing would startle me and leave me trembling for an hour. I had nervous headaches, and slept very badly at nights, some nights not at all. My appetite grew poor, and I was really a physical wreck. I had been to several doctors and had taken many different medicines, but without any benefit. Then I read of a case similar cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I sent for a dozen boxes fully believing it would take at least that many to cure me. You can judge of my gratitude, however, when I found that after using only half a dozen boxes I was again enjoying the best of health, and have since remained well and strong. I used the remainder of the pills among my children when they seemed out of sorts, and have found them at all times to be the very best of family medicines."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Backache Means Your Kidneys Want Help!

The kidneys are among the most important organs. They are most subject to periods of depression, imperfect action and lowered vitality. Invariably, they give warning, in the form of backache, headache, pains in the joints, etc. Wise people, careful of their health, act quickly when any of these symptoms appear. Careless or easy-going persons often permit a slight affection of the kidneys to grow into acute or chronic kidney trouble, ignoring the plainly-given warning of unhealthy kidneys. Prompt help is given inactive kidneys by DR. CLARK'S SWEET NITRE PILLS. They cleanse, tone, stimulate and restore the kidneys to normal vigor in quick time. One Dollar Down

AND

One Dollar Per Week

For five years pays for an improved fruit tract in B.C. At the end of the five years it should bring you in $500 to $1,500 per year.

Actual Government Reports for the Kootenay Lake District show greater results from ONE ACRE

There is hardly a man, woman or child in the United States or Canada who cannot afford one Dollar Per Week to establish a home in an ideal country like the famous Kootenay Lake District. In five years a clear title to one acre of improved bearing orchard is delivered to you or your heirs.

I have set aside five hundred acres of choice fruit, land, and as soon as I have sold that out your opportunity is lost. I want every man, woman or child who reads this ad to send in their dollar at once and secure an acre tract on the above terms. Write for full particulars of the best offer ever made to those who wish a home in an ideal climate, where you will have honest and congenial neighbors.

I sell five, ten and twenty acre tracts on very easy monthly payments. Also give a big discount for cash. Join one of my monthly excursions and see the country for yourself. July 20 and August 30 are my next two dates. A big bunch went up June 27—all bought from me except two. Pretty good evidence that what I am offering is right, isn't it? I have sold to several hundred people since January 1st. I live there myself. Have my own fruit ranch on the shores of the beautiful Kootenay Lake. I want you for my neighbor in B.C., and I am sure you will want to be when you see the country. My new way to grow apples will interest you. Also the famous Kootenay Magazine tells all about the fruit and other industries of Southern B.C. Subscription price $2.50 per year, or sent free for year on receipt of twenty names of friends or relatives who might be interested in B.C. fruit lands. My booklet, "Homeseeking," tells you how I spent five years in the West looking for what we all want—an ideal location for a home. It's free.

Write to-day, giving name of reliable reference, your nationality, and amount you wish to buy.

CHAPTER XXII
Montague and Capulet

She'll love one day and hate the next. She'll save your life in the morning and in the evening she'll be ready to murder you. She is beautiful as a fairy but as treacherous as a snake.

She is the daughter of a lunatic who is hidden away in the Abbey. And Lady Anne Daubeney is mad.

Harry wished he could forget Stephen Jessop's words.

He would not have owned it even to himself, but he was far less happy and contented than he had felt on his first arrival at Crayborne.

Night and day he tormented his mind about Lady Anne, trying to account for her strange changes of humor and her unaccountable caprices and to reconcile them with the exalted ideal he had formed of her.

It was not only the ideal which he loved. Lady Anne had fired his imagination, but she had also touched his heart by her wrongs, her loneliness, and her charity; and her singularly picturesque style of beauty stirred his senses more than good looks in woman had ever yet done.

Nevertheless, he could not but marvel at the odd and unattractive objects upon whom she chose to lavish her kindness, a surly foul-mouthed old man and a malignant and hideous idiot seemed to suggest a trace of freakishness in her benevolence, and her avowed dislike against so lovely a

Baby's Rash Became a Mass of HumorParents Decided He Could Not Be Cured. "Cut-cura" Soon Made
His Skin Perfectly Clear.

A Toronto man, Mr. Robert Mann, of 7584 Queen St. East, says: "Our boy was born in Toronto on Oct. 13, 1908, and when three months old a slight rash appeared on his check. What appeared to be a water blister would form. When it broke, matter would run out, starting new blisters until his entire face, head and shoulders were a mass of scabs and you could not see a particle of clear skin.

We did not know what to do for him and tried about every advertised remedy without avail. Indeed some of them only added to his suffering and one in particular, the Remedy, almost put the infant into convulsions. The family doctor prescribed for him. This did not do any good, so we took him to a hospital.

He was treated as an out-patient twice a week and he got worse. If anything, we then called in another doctor and inside of a week the boy was, to all appearances, cured. But the very next day it broke out as bad as ever.

"We decided that it could not be cured and must run its course and so we just kept his arms bandaged to his side to prevent his tearing his flesh. This Cuticura Remedies were recommended. We started using them in May, 1909, and soon the cure was complete. Cuticura made his skin perfectly clear and he is entirely free from the skin disease."

(Signed) Robert Mann, May 3, 1910.

In another letter, dated June 29, 1911, he adds: "My boy has never had any more trouble since using Cuticura."

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the most successful treatment for skin and scalp troubles of infants, children and adults. A single set is often sufficient. Although sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin, will be sent free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., 53 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

THE WORLD'S WORK DEPENDS ON THE WORLD'S DIGESTION

From the captain of industry to the hod carrier—from millady in the auto to the woman with the scrubbing brush—the accomplishments of every one of us depend absolutely on the accomplishments of our stomachs. Backed by a good digestion, a man can give the best that is in him. When his stomach fails, he becomes a weakling.

To this loss of power no one need submit. Right habits of eating, drinking, sleeping and exercise, aided by Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, will restore and maintain the full efficiency of the human mind and body.

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets contain the active principles needed for the digestion of every kind of food. They go to the assistance of the weakened stomach, and enable the sufferer, right from the start, to assimilate and get the benefit of the food eaten. With this assistance, the digestive organs regain their tone, and soon the use of the tablets is no longer necessary.

If your stomach is not working properly, try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c. at your druggist's. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

child as Edwin Jessop strengthened this idea.

I don't and won't believe that objectionable old man's story about her—though I cannot help wondering who that unhappy creature at the altar steps could be. A lunatic hidden away in the Abbey, the 'weapen' lady, of whom the sexton told me; the person of whom Lisette was told to 'take no notice'; all those descriptions seemed to suggest the creature I saw in the chapel, who was unmistakably the spy who followed us in the cloisters that night.

But I am by no means sure that this person really is a woman!

The face which peered out from a sort of cowl of dark material might belong equally well to a man. Certainly there was nothing feminine about it.

Who was this person? The door I saw in the stone corridor outside the chapel led into the cell of a monk; does this creature live there?

And why did Lady Anne make no allusion to this other mysterious occupant of her house? If not her mother or her father, as Stephen Jessop suggested, who can it be?

The young man's mind, healthy but romantic, was embroiled in a struggle of perplexities and of disquieting surmises. Lodgers Abbey, equally with its inmates, seemed to have put a spell upon him. Everywhere he turned he was faced by something he could not understand; and the actions of persons wholly outside his daily life at Crayborne, such as Leopold Sarto, and the young man with the note of interrogation in his tie, were as perplexing and as incomprehensible as those of Lady Anne herself.

I shall end in an asylum if this sort of thing goes on, Harry reflected as he blew out his candle that night and got into bed, with the inward conviction that, however carefully he might conceal electric light contrivances and revolvers under his pillow, he yet, being a heavy sleeper, was entirely at the mercy of something, someone he knew not what or whom, that could enter his room and leave it at will.

Rising early from a troubled night of dreams, he flung open the windows and looked across the fields towards the Abbey trees.

Even at that early hour the air was oppressively hot and quiet with that strange stillness which presages a thunder-storm.

Harry felt a great longing to be away somewhere on breezy downs and uplands, where he could freely breathe. He thought of the country through which he had been driven on the preceding Sunday in going and in coming from Vale House, for Mr. Warne had at least had the courtesy to insist upon his guest returning to Crayborne in his carriage. The country of heather and fir trees and of open spaces high above the sea was close at hand, he knew; but this seemed hardly the day for a long walking excursion.

He thought of Lillas and suddenly felt a wish to see her. There were not problems or mysteries about her, and she scoured this delightful country in the right way, on horseback. As he was dressing the memory of her face, eager, sympathetic, full of ready enjoyment in life as it is, and with a responsive humor shining in her brilliant hazel eyes at every comic incident or word, came vividly before him.

That is a nice girl, he told himself. I wish she were not Denzil Warne's niece. I wish she were my—no, not my sister; that would not be sufficiently interesting—but my cousin. How I should enjoy telling everything to such a cousin! Her ready brain might understand some of these mysteries which to my slower intelligence are incomprehensible. She did not know how to ride, but she was plucky at sticking on. We would ride out together, and I would teach her how to manage her horse, and she would teach me more about women. That might help me with Lady Anne.

With the unconscious selfishness of a lover, it did not occur to him that this process of mutual improvement might possibly be dangerous to the lady's peace of mind. Harry belonged to the big handsome, athletic type, which is seldom vain, and he would have been astonished had anyone assured him that Lillas Morpion was much more than half in love with him already.

Didn't Sound Right

Ma, what does d d stand for? Doctor of divinity, my dear. Don't they teach you the common abbreviations in school.

Oh, yes; but that don't seem to sound right here.

Read it out loud, my dear.

My Dear (reading)—Witness—I heard the defendant say, I'll make you suffer for this. I'll be doctor of divinity—if I don't.

Quarter-General Edwin A. Taylor, of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans told at a Memorial day banquet in Memphis this story:

A southerner, he said, sat in the lobby of a New York hotel discussing certain campaigns with a northerner. Well, the northerner ended, with a laugh, well, we licked you, anyhow.

Yes, you did, the southerner admitted, but it's plain from the size of your pension list that before we gave in we crippled every blessed one of you!

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

How Tailors Sew on Buttons

Tailors double their thread used to sew on buttons and make a knot and hold the knot in the teeth while they twist the thread; then they wax it, and that keeps it twisted. Then they put a pin across the button, and after the buttons are sewed on they remove the pin and wind the thread around several times, making a kind of a stem as this makes it more easy to button the garment. The buttons on children's waists should be sewed on this way so more than one garment can be buttoned on the same waist.

Small but Potent—Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are small, but they are effective in action. Their fine qualities as a corrector of stomach troubles are known to thousands and they are in constant demand everywhere by those who know what a safe and simple remedy they are. They need no introduction to those acquainted with them, but to those who may not know them they are presented as the best preparation on the market for disorders of the stomach.

Proof of an Old Adage

The First Cornet Band of Plainville, was giving its regular Saturday night concert on the four corners, just previous to calling on the merchants for their weekly payments on the subscriptions for the new instruments.

The bass drummer, who was the ical cooper, in an absent-minded moment busted a hole in one side of his instrument, but kept on the job.

Hi Higley, who was among the assembled populace, listened on for awhile after the accident, and said the music was proof to him of the truth of the old saying that two heads are better than one.

A FOOD CONVERT

Good Food the true Road to Health

The pernicious habit some persons still have of relying on nauseous drugs to relieve stomach trouble, keeps up the patent medicine business and helps keep up the army of dyspeptics.

Indigestion—dyspepsia—is caused by what is put into the stomach in the way of improper food, the kind that so taxes the strength of the digestive organs they are actually crippled.

When this state is reached, to resort to tonics is like whipping a tired horse with a big load. Every additional effort he makes under the lash diminishes his power to move the load.

Try helping the stomach by leaving off heavy, greasy, indigestible food and take on Grape-Nuts—light, easily digested, full of strength for nerves and brain, in every grain of it. There's no waste of time nor energy when Grape-Nuts is the food.

"I am an enthusiastic user of Grape-Nuts and consider it an ideal food," writes a Main man.

"I had nervous dyspepsia and was all run down and my food seemed to do me but little good. From reading an advertisement I tried Grape-Nuts food, and after a few weeks' steady use of it, felt greatly improved.

"Am much stronger, not nervous now, and can do more work without feeling so tired, and am better every way.

"I relish Grape-Nuts best with cream and use four heaping teaspoonfuls as the cereal part of a meal. I am sure there are thousands of persons with stomach trouble who would be benefited by using Grape-Nuts. Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. More About
The Loading Platform

The present generation of Western farmers will never know the difficulties and vexations experienced by their predecessors in the earlier years when no one could get a carload of grain shipped in bulk except by loading it through an elevator. The system forced the majority of farmers to sell their grain to the elevator owners at arbitrary prices, and oft times to submit to heavy dockage and other annoyances, causing continual dissatisfaction. Now however the distribution of cars as fixed by the Grain Act, and the use of the loading platform, provide facilities which enable the farmer to secure satisfactory treatment in the disposal of his grain and the highest market prices at time of sale. Every farmer therefore, should more and more endeavor to use the loading platform in shipping his grain to the terminal elevators. It is the safeguard of the farmers' freedom in disposing of his grain to the best advantage for himself. If farmers refrain from using the loading platform freely, it might result in its being done away with, because railway companies and elevator owners are strongly opposed to it. It is easy to understand why elevator people desire the loading platform abolished. The railway people on their part say it delays the loading of cars and helps to cause car shortage. This we know to be nonsense, because frequently after cars are loaded with grain, coal, lumber or other merchandise, they are sidetracked for days and even weeks instead of being promptly moved forward to destination. It is engine shortage and shortage of competent train men that mostly causes grain to be loaded on railways and not lack of cars. Let every farmer therefore, do all he can to use the loading platform and become an independent shipper. In subsequent advertisements we will state in detail the savings and other advantages of direct loading into cars compared with loading through elevators.

We handle the farmers grain strictly on commission, make liberal advances on car bills of lading, supervise the grading at time cars are inspected, secure the highest prices at time of sale and make prompt returns when sold. Write us for shipping instructions and market information.

BUTTER IS IMPORTED

NOT ENOUGH PRODUCED IN CANADA FOR DEMAND

Three Million Pounds Purchased last Winter in United States and New Zealand—Outlook for Dairying is Exceedingly Good, and Farmers Should Increase Production.

Ottawa.—The department of agriculture has made public the report of J. A. Riddick, the dairy and cold storage commissioner, for the year ending March 31, 1913. Mr. Riddick, in the course of his summary of the features of the year, makes some interesting remarks on the subject of the home market.

After noting that the unfavorable weather of 1911 caused a shortage of butter and cheese, Mr. Riddick says: "It became apparent early in the winter that the stock of stored butter in Canada, plus the winter production, would be insufficient to supply the demand until the new season's output would be available. As a result a large quantity of butter was imported, principally from New Zealand, the total quantity, covering from that winter down to date, March 31, being 2,139,944 pounds."

There has also been imported during the year 929,318 pounds from the United States.

In explanation of this, Mr. Riddick says that the freight and duty, 3 cents per pound, on freshly made butter from New Zealand amounts to about the same as the cost of carrying Canadian butter from summer to March. Canada, he says, does not produce enough butter during the winter for her current demands and must either hold some summer butter in storage or import from the southern hemisphere.

It is not unlikely, he says, that the Pacific coast, at any rate, will continue for some years as in the past, to secure partial supplies from Australia.

Dealing with the export market he says:

Germany continues to grow in importance of international trade in dairy produce, every year importing larger quantities of butter. It would appear that on the whole the world's consumption of dairy products is increasing rather faster than production and that reserve stocks are lighter at the present moment than they have been for many years.

The outlook for dairying at present is exceedingly good and there is every encouragement from the market point of view for Canadian farmers to increase their production.

Dealing with the home trade, Mr. Riddick remarks that while it is very large, it has not in the past attracted as much attention as its volume would warrant.

DATE OF PARLIAMENT MEETING

Whether It Will Assemble in November or January is Matter of Speculation

Ottawa.—Speculation as to whether Parliament will open in November or January is on the increase in the capital and while members of the government themselves state that the matter will not be settled until there is a full meeting of the cabinet, there would appear to be a growing belief that the government may not be able to get its sessional programme in readiness for November. If it is found it to be impossible to do so the ministers will have to decide whether it would be better to meet in November with some of the bills ready to proceed with or to wait to January and meet the house with a practically complete parliamentary bill of fare. That it will be practically impossible for the government to get down to a steady and continuous consideration of its estimates and legislative measures before the end of September or the beginning of October is certain.

Toronto.—A story was in circulation today that the Canadian Pacific may form a holding company to take over the company's vast holdings in the west in event of the government refusing to sanction the capital increase. Montreal.—Sir George Askwith, president of the industrial council, the British committee appointed to make a government inquiry into how labor agreements may be best enforced and into labor legislation in various countries, has arrived in Montreal and will visit the chief centres in Canada and the United States, investigating particularly in Canada the working of the Lemieux act. Today he met a number of employers of labor and also representatives of the working people.

I intend to meet further employers of labor, said Sir George, and persons who take an interest in the labor question. I shall go to Ottawa, Toronto and probably to the trades union congress at Guelph and then on to Calgary and Vancouver in order to see important representatives of both the employers and employed, and later will visit the United States.

NELSON AS BAY TERMINAL

Opinion Prevails at Ottawa That This Will be Choice—Cochrane Returning

Ottawa.—A telegraph message received at the department of railways today from Indian Harbor stating that the government steamer Stanley, which is conveying Hon. F. Cochrane minister of railways, from Hudson Bay to North Sydney, will, in all probability arrive at North Sydney on Tuesday. It is expected that the minister will on arrival at Sydney, start at once for the capital.

A definite announcement as to the government's choice of the terminals on Hudson Bay is expected soon after Mr. Cochrane reaches the capital.

The general expectation is that Nelson will get the choice over Churchill and that in the course of a few months a contract will be let for the construction of the section of the road between Split Lake and the more southern port.

ITALY AND TRIPOLI

ITALIANS ANNOUNCE TERMS FOR ENDING WAR

Express a Determination to Maintain Hold on Tripoli and Cyrenaica—Will Return to Turkey Islands in Aegean Sea, Excepting Stampalia.

Chiasso, Switzerland.—Italy is determined to maintain its hold on Tripoli and Cyrenaica. No great advance has yet been made in the unofficial negotiations for peace which are now going on in Switzerland between the Italian delegation and representatives of the Turkish government. The former, while expressing their readiness to make concessions in behalf of Italy in secondary matters, have declared it impossible to give in on several points. Italy demands absolute and complete sovereignty over Tripoli and Cyrenaica without, however, exacting its recognition from Turkey. It demands the evacuation of the Turkish troops and it is pointed out that the administration at Constantinople might find a way to meet these demands by proclaiming the independence of these territories, entrusting the Arabs to govern themselves.

It is also proposed that Turkey shall immediately re-admit Italians to the Ottoman Empire under the same conditions as prevailed before the war. Italy will keep Stampalia as a naval station, while she will return to Turkey the other islands in the Aegean Sea on condition that their nationalities shall be respected and that their political and administrative organization shall be conducted on the lines set forth in the proposal of Count Leopold von Berchtold, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister. Finally Italy will grant Turkey the same concessions as were granted by Austria when the latter country annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.

WOMEN CLIMBERS IN BLIZZARD

Canadian Sprains her Ankle and Has to Seek Shelter in Hut—Another Held Prisoner

Geneva.—Miss Sommerville, a Canadian Alpinist, joined her parents in Geneva after being overdue thirty hours, ten of which she spent in a hut in the Mont Blanc range during a snowstorm and with a sprained ankle.

The young Canadian, who is a good climber, started from Courmayeur, Italy, without a guide to cross the Col du Geant, 11,052 feet high, to Chamonix and was overtaken by a violent snowstorm. During the hurried descent to gain the shelter of the hut she slipped and twisted her ankle.

Miss Sommerville says an Alpine storm surprised in ferocity a Canadian blizzard, but happily it does not last so long.

About the same time Miss Oldfield, of London, who is staying at Aosta, was caught in the same storm while climbing Mont Cornet, 8123 feet high, and was forced to spend many hours in an Alpine hut.

A search party of Italian guides set out in quest of the lost Englishwoman, and after a long and useless search returned to Aosta to find that she had arrived several hours before.

MUTINY IN BLACK SEA

Reports That Forte Have Been Bombarded and Warships Sunk

London.—A private telegram from Sebastopol reported a mutiny of the crews of the Black Sea Squadron, according to the Constantinople correspondent of the Chronicle.

The warships bombarded the forts which replied vigorously and sunk one of the attacking vessels.

The heavy gun fire continued as the despatch left. It is stated that one cruiser escaped and reached Burgas, Bulgaria. No confirmation of this report has been received from other sources.

Labor Conditions Quiet

Ottawa.—The labor department reports quiet conditions throughout the country, insofar as industrial disturbances are concerned. The strikes which occurred throughout the country in July did not extend into August, and there are only a few disputes pending. In all cases conciliation boards have either been applied for or at work.

Great Timber Resources

Vancouver.—Provincial timber officials have just completed an estimate which shows that one billion feet of timber per year is cut in this province. The same officials figure that six billion feet could be safely cut without diminishing the supply. The rate of cutting could be therefore increased six times and kept up for ever without depleting the supply.

SAFE-GUARDING LIVES AT SEA

British Board of Trade Issues Revised Rules as Outcome of Titanic Inquiry

London.—As an outcome of the Titanic inquiry, the board of trade has issued revised rules for increasing the safety of lives at sea. The rules become effective on January 1, 1913. They will provide that foreign going passenger ships and emigrant ships and foreign sailing ships carrying passengers shall be required to furnish life boat accommodation for all on board; the life boat equipment which has been increased must be in the boats as soon as the ship leaves the harbor and there remain throughout the voyage.

The number of persons to be carried in each boat must be marked on it. Sidney Buxton, of the board of trade, in issuing the new rules makes the statement that it may be necessary to obtain further legislative powers in order to make adequate boat drill compulsory and secure crews to man the boats properly.

The rule is abrogated which permitted ships with bulkheads to carry a lesser number of boats.

Ottawa.—Official figures of exports and imports for the first quarter of the current year, namely to June 30, show a total Canadian trade of $237,313,779, an increase of $55,332,350 over the corresponding period of last year.

Imports for the quarter, exclusive of coin and bullion, totalled $152,975,545 as against $117,419,627.

Exports totalled $76,266,776 as against $56,624,400 for the first quarter of 1911.

Another Canal

Berlin.—There is a rumor in financial circles here that negotiations are on foot in London for the formation of an Anglo-French syndicate for the construction of a canal through Nicaragua with the object of counteracting the difficulties that have arisen over the Panama Canal—through the passage of the Panama Canal law by the American congress. Men in authoritative circles are incredulous and the origin of the rumor cannot be traced. Nothing is said to be known in London about it.

Eating Dogs

Berlin.—Stories are in circulation in connection with the high cost of food that poor people are killing and eating dogs. Those who believe it point for proof to an advertisement in a Zacon newspaper in which the Dresden society for the prevention of cruelty to animals calls attention to the mysterious disappearance of large dogs, which it is supposed were caught for slaughtering.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON XI—THIRD QUARTER, FOR SEPT. 15, 1912

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xi, 20-30, Memory Verses, 23-30—Golden Text Matt. xi, 28—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This lesson is another step backward in the regular sequence of events but it matters comparatively little, as he is in the heart of every lesson, and the book is given to us that we may know God, who can be known only through Jesus Christ, as we shall see before we have finished the lesson.

Our attention is caught first by the three references to His mighty works (verses 20, 21, 23), and we remember that He said on one occasion: If I do not the works of My Father believe Me not. But if I do, though ye believe not Me, believe the works that ye may know and believe that the Father is in Me and I in Him, (John x, 37, 38). In Israel's national anthem, which was written so long ago and which they will sing when the kingdom comes, they will exhort one another to declare His doings, for He hath done excellent things (Isa. xli, 4). In their great psalter they are repeatedly urged to talk of all His wondrous works (Ps. lxxviii, 4; xvi, 3; cv, 2-6; cvi, 2). We should begin at creation and follow on through His dealings with Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Israel's deliverance from Egypt and all His subsequent dealings with them, then remember that He who did these mighty works in Chorazin, Bethsaida, Capernaum, is the same person whom we saw working from creation onward who was born as the Son of Mary in Bethlehem, but whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity (Mic. v, 2, margin).

Mark His: I say unto you (verses 22, 34) and remember that it is the same as the: thus saith the Lord, of the Old Testament, and it stands to all eternity.

He is speaking as the Judge when He talks of the future of Tyre and Sidon and Sodom and the day of judgment and says that it will be more tolerable for them than for the cities in which He did His mighty works, for the Father judgeth no man but hath committed all judgment unto the Son (John v, 22). What this more tolerable may mean we cannot know certainly, but we do know that there are degrees in punishment, many stripes and few stripes, as there are also degrees in glory—every one punished or rewarded according to their doings (Rev. xxii, xlii, 12; Jer. xvi, 10). Salvation is the same for all and wholly of grace apart from any works of ours, but the rewards for the saved will be according to service. All who reject Christ are lost, but punishment will be according to desert. As to the day of judgment, it will cover a thousand years, saved people being judged for service at the judgment seat of Christ and the nations after that, when the redeemed come with Christ in glory, both of those judgments at the beginning of the thousand years—the judgment of the great white throne for the rest of the dead at the end of the thousand years. The Lord is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (1 Pet. iii, 9), and one of His last commands before His ascension was that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations (Luke xxiv, 47). Even after the church shall have been caught up, when the trumpets shall be sounded and the vials of wrath poured out, it will be in order that men may repent (Rev. ix, 20, 21; xvi, 9, 11). The wisdom of this world cannot receive these or any other truths of God and is increasingly rejecting the whole world of God and thus we learn that we are fast nearing the end of this ungodly age and the dawn of a better one. Let us be glad to be the little children, the babes, who believe every word that our Heavenly Father has told us, and let us not forget that the world by its wisdom, whether in the pulpit or the pew or the professor's chair, does not and cannot know God (1 Cor. i, 21). It is better to know God than to possess the riches or wisdom or might of this world, but it requires true humility and poverty of spirit, and that the proud, rebellious carnal mind of man does not have and does not want (Jer. ix, 23, 24; Matt. v, 3; Jas. iv, 6).

When we are able to say concerning all the words and works of God, all that He does or permits to be done the words of verse 26 from the heart, "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy Sight," we have reached a place of real soul rest, a place where we can abide satisfied. This was the rest of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Father sent Him, and He lived by the Father, always pleasing the Father and delighting Himself in the Father's will. So He says to all those who labor and are heavy laden, "Come unto Me, and I will give you rest." The rest is to be found in Himself, not in His service nor His gifts. We must learn to slog from the heart, Jesus, I am resting, resting in the joy of what Thou art. He says, "My peace I give unto you."

The love of the Father and the will of the Father were His rest and peace, and they may be ours too. Only the meek and lowly heart can enjoy His yoke and learn of Him, but to the natural man this meekness and humility are utterly distasteful, for the natural man is under the control of the devil, and he knows nothing of meekness or lowliness.

The Feeble, Wasted Nerves Were Restored and Revitalized by

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Nervous prostration is a terrible disease to all who understand its symptoms. At times the sufferer feels comparatively well, but with slight exertion the dreadful helplessness returns and all strength seems to leave the system.

This letter from Mrs. Martin very well describes the terrible condition in which many a sufferer finds herself. She also tells how she regained health and strength by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after all other treatments had failed.

Mrs. Edwin Martin, Ayer's Cliff, Que., writes:—"Before I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was in a terrible condition from nervous exhaustion and prostration. Dizzy spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor. The weakness was so great that I could not so much as sweep the floor without fainting, but the nerve food helped me after the doctors failed. It has done wonders in building up my nervous system. I can do my own housework now and washing, and feel that this great medicine has been a God-send to me. I think it is the best of medicines."

Bass fishing was out of season, and the game warden who happened to find a small boy holding a rod and line, took the precaution to satisfy himself that the string on the sand held only catfish, perch and suckers. But a few feet farther along he found a large black bass wriggling and weighted down with a stone. The boy's conscious look proclaimed him the guilty person.

What are you doing with this fish? asked the warden in terrifying tones. Well, you see, returned the boy, blushing, but untroubled, he's been taking my bait all morning, so I just tied him up until I get through fishing.

Superfluous Wealth

Woodrow Wilson, at a dinner at Spring Lake, said of the multimillionaire:

After all, most of the wealth is superfluous. When I think of a multimillionaire's millions, I am reminded of a story about Gobsa Golde.

I have four English men servants, said Gobsa Golde, on the terrace of his marble cottage at Newport—four English men servants, whose sole duty it is to look after my sea bathing.

He cleared his throat pompously and continued:

The first has charge of my bathing suit, the second takes care of the boathouse and the showers, and the third, in a small boat, acts as a kind of life guard to me.

But the fourth—what does the fourth—what does the fourth do? a listener asked.

Oh, he takes my bath. Sea bathing always has a depressing effect on my heart.

He (doubtfully)—Now, Miss Gladys, the other day I stole a kiss from you, and, according to the minister I must give it back.
